Recommendation for Mr. Petr Hloucal

To Whom It May Concern:

I met Petr Hloucal during the 6-meter world championship 2009 in Rhode Island, USA, where he was involved with running the silver medal campaign for the GBR-Scoundrel team. I broke the mast on my own boat and Petr rescued us and helped with the repair. Due to his efforts, we were able to enter the races the next day. He is an expert small boat handler and has had wide experience in yachts up to 40 meters.

In January 2010 I offered Petr Hloucal long-term accommodation in my house in Lymington for free while I was living in the United States. He stayed and lived in my home and used it as a base during his employment with Yachting Solutions and The Royal Thames Yacht Club.

In my experiences of sailing with him and his looking after my house, I have found him to be completely honest, trustworthy, hard working and reliable. I would not hesitate to trust him to take care of any of my property on land or sea.
